

Title: Global Citizenship the key for achieving SDGs- Critical Perspective

Date: 5th of September 2017

Objectives of the workshop	-to raise the level of understanding of the concept of global citizenship; -to contribute to the internalisation of the associated values and principles of global citizenship; -to create a space for reflecting personally and critically as global citizen -to develop critical thinking around the concept of global citizenship in the ambitious context of SDG-s agenda
Speakers/resource persons + a very short description (3/ lines)	Andreea-Loredana Tudorache Managed projects on global education in international contexts (including intercontinental ones), trained more than 300 global educators worldwide and contributed developing global citizenship competencies for more than 5000 people (predominantly young people). Usually her facilitating approach is rather thought-provocative and aims to raise more questions then give answers.
Other information (e.g. useful links to be sent to the participants before event)	http://issuu.com/andreea_loredana/docs/global_education_manual_small Manual on Global Education developed by the facilitator of the workshop- the manual can give an insight in some of the concepts but the educational materials included there are not going to be applied in this specific workshop.
