

Title - Best practice: Youth Livelihood Programs

Data 04.09.2017

Objectives of the workshop	As our mission is to promote top quality experiential education models that advance life skills among youth as a means for sustainable development around the globe we propose a workshop that presents best practice methodologies, processes and procedures in developing holistic approaches to adolescent and youth livelihood programming in international contexts with a focus on Armenia, one of the countries that implemented with success both IMPACT and SKYE program.
Speakers/resource persons + a very short description (3/ lines)	Kelly Organ – Program Coordinator for International Development & Capacity-Building of New Horizon Foundation Romania, responsible for IMPACT and SKYE youth clubs replication in Europe, Asia, Latin America, and the US. Liana Sargsyan – is program manager at World Vision Armenia, responsible for strategic planning and management of youth interventions across the country.
Other information (e.g. useful links to be sent to the participants before event)	